

Teachers' Guide

With you at every step

Thinking about being a supply teacher?

Being a supply teacher offers you the fulfilment of teaching without the administrative burden of excessive paperwork and bureaucracy.

All schools experience unexpected staffing shortages at some time or another. Supply teaching can ensure a continuity of work, and offers you the choice of long-term and short-term assignments.

Testimonials

“By joining Step I have established effective professional relationships, built up a repertoire of known schools, found regular work and been supported excellently by the team at Step”

“Step Teachers was recommended to me by a teacher who was working with them at the time and it proved to be an excellent choice. The need to contact another agency has never arisen.”

“They never failed to provide me with as much work as I wanted at the times I wanted.”

“I signed up with four agencies but in the end only used one, which was Step. I was kept busy the whole year... I even had the luxury of turning work away.”

Becoming part of the Step Teachers team

Going into a new school for the first time can be daunting. To be effective in your new post and make that crucial difference to children's lives, it is important that you feel you are not on your own.

When you work with Step Teachers, you will have a dedicated consultant to help place you in positions most suited to your experience, ambitions and employment needs.

Being a part of the Step Teachers team has many other benefits, including:

- Comprehensive school base – ensuring we can provide you with regular assignments.
- Competitive rates of pay – based on your experience and Quality Assessment feedback.
- Weekly payroll – every Friday.
- Regional support teams – with a friendly, personal approach and social events organised for you.
- Professional development – access to a range of resources and information towards your continuous professional development.
- Recommend a teacher – If you know a good teacher, who is looking for supply or permanent work, recommend them to Step Teachers and when they have completed 10 days work with us, we will pay you £100. It is as simple as that!

Permanent teaching posts with Step Teachers

Finding a permanent teaching job can be stressful and time consuming. So why not get Step Teachers to do it for you?

Your personal consultant, backed up by a regional team, will work closely with you to assist you through every step of your application.

That means the best possible chance of finding the position that is just right for you, and continuous support right up to the point where you sign your contract.
